Bilung Gloria G. Salii Guest Speaker for HI-189

On Wednesday, May 06, 2015 the HI-189: Palauan History & Culture Class invited Bilung Gloria G. Salii to speak about issues in the community, particularly those pertaining to the women of Palau. As the leader of the Palau women’s group called Mechisil Belau, Bilung Gloria Salii has played an active role in the society of Palau.

In her presentation, Bilung Gloria Salii shared with the students the significance of Mechisil Belau. She emphasized that the purpose of the group is to preserve the Palauan culture while helping to improve the community. The women’s group holds an annual conference where members of the community are invited to address current issues affecting the community. Four main subjects discussed during the conference are education, health, environment, and culture & traditions.

Each year, Mechisil Belau has sent resolutions to the national government with the aim of providing solutions to the issues being faced by the community. HI-189, CONTINUED ON PAGE 4

End-of-the-Year ASPCC Event

In celebration of the last weeks of school, the Associated Students of Palau Community College (ASPCC) are hosting an annual International Night at the PCC Cafeteria on Friday, May 08, 2015. The event will feature performances from the different islands of Micronesia, such as the traditional dances of Yap and the contemporary dances of Palau. Last year, a fashion show that showcased the traditional attires from each island was also part of the program. All the featured performances will be coordinated by the students of the college. ASPCC cordially extends its invitation to all students of the college. Let us celebrate the end of the school year by enjoying the traditions & cultures of our island nations which have always been our defining factors. All who are interested are welcome to join.
FSA Hosts 7th Gentlemen’s Gourmet

The Faculty-Senate Association (FSA) of Palau Community College (PCC) hosted the 7th Gentlemen’s Gourmet on Saturday, May 03, 2015. Featuring an array of cuisines from different parts of the world, the annual Gentlemen’s Gourmet is a food-tasting event that invites members of the community to an evening of cultural experiences. It was hosted at the Ngara chamayong Cultural Center.

Chefs featured at the event are residents of Palau with culinary experiences ranging from novice to expert. This year featured dishes from countries such as India and the United States.

PCC students in the Tourism & Hospitality Program were servers for the evening. Individuals who purchased $20 tickets enjoyed a complementary drink and were entered in a raffle drawing. The theme for this year’s food-tasting event was international cuisine. In total, the 7th Gentlemen’s Gourmet made over $4,000 which will be used to support scholarships for future PCC students. The FSA would like to thank the participants, ticket purchasers, and donors for contributing to the event! Without their support, the 7th Gentlemen’s Gourmet would not have been such a success!

For example, a resolution to make Palauan studies mandatory in all schools submitted by Mechesil Belau has helped preserve the native language of the island. Through such efforts, the women of Mechesil Belau are keeping alive the notion that Palau is for its people and its people should be proud of their heritage.

The Mechesil Belau Conference will be held in September of this year. Bilung Gloria Salii invited all the students of HI-189 to join in the discussions. Instructor Elicita Morei and the HI-189 students would like to thank Bilung Gloria Salii for volunteering her time as well as sharing her expertise. Bilung Gloria Salii is a founding member of the PCC Board of Trustees who served close to twenty years.
