PCC President Dr. Tellei Meets with Students

This week, Palau Community College (PCC) President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei met with the students from each of the island groups represented at the college: the Republic of the Marshall Islands (Monday, January 25, 2016); Kosrae & Chuuk (Wednesday, January 27, 2016); Pohnpei (Thursday, January 28, 2016), and Yap (Friday, January 29, 2016). PCC Dean of Students Sherman Daniel was also present at the meetings.

During the meetings, PCC President Dr. Tellei welcomed the students to the college. He thanked the students for choosing Palau Community College as their next step in their educational journey. After providing updates on the political & local news of their respective islands, PCC President Dr. Tellei advised the students to progress towards achieving their educational goals.

He emphasized on the importance of education, especially for the future of the islands. With an education, the students can return and assist their home islands because education will introduce them to new ideas about the world. MEETINGS, CONTINUED ON PAGE 3

Senate Vice President Visits PCC

On Monday, January 25, 2016 the Ninth Olbiil Era Kelulau Senate Vice President Rukebai K. Inabo visited Palau Community College (PCC). She met with PCC President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei, PCC Dean of Students Sherman Daniel, PCC Dean of Continuing Education William O. Wally, PCC Dean of Academic Affairs Robert Ramarui, PCC Associate Dean of Academic Affairs Marianne Temaungil, PCC Director of Development Tehuzie Tadao, and PCC Executive Assistant to the President Todd Ngiramengior. During their meeting, PCC President Dr. Tellei held a presentation about the RPPL 9-22: The Skilled Palauan Workforce Investment Act that was passed in April 2014. The act mandated the creation of a vocational certification program at the community college as well as the creation of a tax incentive for businesses to hire students who have been certified under the program. ASPCC President Special Election

A special election for the vacant position of President in the Associated Students of Palau Community College (ASPCC) will be held today at the PCC Mesekiu Bai. All registered PCC students are encouraged to participate in choosing a student leader as their representative in school affairs. A student interested in becoming ASPCC President must meet the following criteria: must be registered as a full-time student (twelve credits or more) and maintain a grade point average of 2.00 or higher; must not have a criminal offense of record of felony; and must be in his/her sophomore year with a minimum of thirty (30) credits towards his/her current major. Interested students were required to register at the Office of Student Services no later than Wednesday, January 27, 2016. Currently, only one (1) student has submitted his name for nomination: Mr. Spencer O'Dell, a Small Engine & Outboard Marine Technology student from Palau.

Ms. Cindy Hager paid a courtesy visit to Palau Community College (PCC) on Wednesday, November 27, 2016. Ms. Hager is the Director of Sales for ACHIEVE3000. ACHIEVE300 is a web-based tool that supports reading comprehension and writing proficiency. The program delivers daily differentiated instruction for non-fiction reading and writing that is specifically made according to each registered student's reading level. The tool can be used for daily instruction or as an assessment tool for measuring a student's reading abilities. This allows an education institution to better help students with their literacy skills. During her visit, Ms. Hager held a presentation about ACHIEVE3000 at the PCC Conference Room. PCC President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei, PCC Dean of Academic Affairs Robert Ramarui, PCC Associate Dean of Academic Affairs Marianne Temengil, and PCC Accreditation Liaison Officer (ALO) Deikola Olikong attended the presentation. The college would like to thank Ms. Hager for her visit and for providing an informative presentation about the web-based tool.

Surangel & Sons Company Donation

Palau Community College (PCC) recently received a donation of sixteen (16) cases of lettuce courtesy of Surangel & Sons Company. The cases of lettuce were donated to the PCC Cafeteria as a kind contribution to the supply of food provided to the dormitory students. The college would like to recognize and express its gratitude to Surangel & Sons Company.

PCC President Dr. Tellei shared his experiences as a college student. He explained how he found the tutoring assistance he needed to pass his classes and encouraged the students to do the same when necessary. Students who find it difficult to understand concepts in the classroom were encouraged to meet with the tutors at the Learning Resource Center (LRC). They were also encouraged to discuss their academic struggles with the counselors at the Student Life & Housing Office to avoid unnecessary set-backs.

PCC President Dr. Tellei also extended his invitation and reminded the students that his door was always open to anyone in need. The main purpose of the college was to help each of them succeed and they should not be afraid to ask for help along the way.

Upon completing a vocational program (Civic Action Team Program, Job Corp., etc.), a person will be issued a Certificate of Completion or a Certificate of Competence. A student who completes a vocational degree program at PCC will receive a Certificate of Mastery for his/her respective field.

PCC President Dr. Tellei provided in detail an explanation about how the vocational program participants will be assessed and certified under the RPPL 9-22. In addition, he provided information regarding the PCC graduates who have received Certificates of Mastery as well as statistical data about the college vocational degree programs and its number of students/graduates.

Words of Thanks & Appreciation

Dear PCC Family,

I would like to express my gratitude & recognize those of you who helped me get through the last few weeks. Your thoughts, prayers, and badek have meant so much to me. It is in such times of sadness & grief that personal words, and more so friends, become so valuable. It meant a great deal to me that you came to Julia's funeral. It was a difficult day and your presence was of great comfort to me. I will never forget your kindness and generosity.

I hope that this year will be a happy one for you and your family.

Thank You All for Caring,
Pioria W. Asito
