Oilouch, Paramedic & Assistant Professor Edward Caballero, (2nd row ctr to r) Director Ritter B. Udui, PCC President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei, Dr. Yuriko Bechessrak and Bureau of Public Safety officers

On May 21, 2019 Palau Community College (PCC) President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei, Vice President & Minister of Justice Raynold B. Oilouch, Ministry of Health Dr. Ngirachisau Mekoll and Dr. Yuriko Bechessrak, Emergency Health Program Director Ritter B. Udui, Chairman of Palau Board of Health Professions Dr. Gregory Dever and Paramedic & Assistant Professor of Kapi'olani Community College Edward Caballero signed a Standing Orders & Treatment Protocols for Emergency Medical Services Personnel. This framework provides guidelines and procedures for emergency medical service providers, paramedics, and Belau National Hospital personnel. It also outline primary responsibilities of emergency medical services technicians for on-the-scene coordination and management care.

One of the fundamental protocol stated in the framework is the code of ethics which require emergency medical service personnel to save life, alleviate suffering, promote health, and to encourage quality and equal availability of emergency medical care.

SDA Elementary School 5th Graders

May 21, 2019 Palau Seventh Day Adventist Elementary School 5th graders visited PCC library to learn about various resources available to students and community.

Accompany the students was Ms. Germaine Yaoch 5th grader homeroom teacher. On hand to provide information about the library was library assistant Amanda Ebas. Students were introduced to the various sections of the library such as Fiction & Nonfiction, Biography Collection, United Nations, Micro-Pacific Collection, Kids Korner, Teen Collection, and International.

Ms. Ebas also provides online research information at the computer lab section. At the end of the tour, students received hands-on research experience by researching their essay topic using online catalog and world-wide web search engine. Ms. Yaoch thanks PCC library staff for providing needed information for her students so that they can be able to conduct their own research utilizing PCC library.
