PCC Summer Session Student Orientation

PCC CE, WIOA & KSG Hold
Summer Youth Program

Inset 1 to r: Vice President of Administration & Finance Jay Olegeriil, Dean of Student Sherman Daniel, and Academic Counselor Shelley Ueki

On Monday, June 3, 2019 Palau Community College (PCC) held a New Student Orientation for the students enrolling in the summer session. The orientation introduced the new students to the programs and services available at the college. PCC Vice President Jay Olegeriil began the orientation by welcoming the new students. He thanked the students for choosing PCC as the next step in their education journey and advised the students to prioritize their education. Dean of Students Sherman Daniel followed with an introduction to the services available at the college designed to help the students achieve academic success.

PCC Student Life Counselor Shelley Ueki provided the new students with information about Schools of Arts and Sciences, Schools of Business, and School of Technical Education. The new students were led on a tour of the college campus by members of the Associated Students of Palau Community College (ASPCC) and RPSO. The orientation also helped the new students begin their registration process. They met with the academic advisors from Student Life Division and planned their classes for the summer.

KSG staff and students during arts and crafts session

On June 3, 2019 Palau Community College Continuing Education in collaboration with Workforce Innovative Opportunity Act (WIOA) and Koror State Government conducted a six weeks summer class on traditional dances, arts & crafts, local tree plants, chants, and traditional Abai.

The program instructors for this summer are Luciano Shiro, Dave Taro, Dilchur Ruluked, Jury Kebekol, Tyce Rdiall, Hermana Ramarui, Albert Soaladaob, Sariang Timulch, and Floriano Felix.

The program is expected to end on July 12 with students showcasing their arts and crafts along with traditional chants and dances learned. PCC CE, WIOA, and KSG thanks the college for the opportunity to host this year's summer program.

Palau Community College is an accessible public educational institution helping to meet the technical, academic, cultural, social, and economic needs of students and communities by promoting learning opportunities and developing personal excellence.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR AN OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT!!
