PCC Staff Participates in CPR Training

PCC staff during First Aid & CPR training at CE Continuing Education with PRCS instructors

On Thursday, November 14, PCC staff participated in a First Aid & Basic life Support/Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) training held at Continuing Education training room. Over twenty staff from various offices participated in this one-day training to equip themselves with necessary skills needed to assist students and staff in case of injury or illness. First aid and CPR are the provision of initial care and may be performed by trained individual who do not have medical background. The training is to ensure PCC staff are well prepared for any medical emergencies on campus.

PCC staff who participated in the training are Maurine Alexander, Marie Anderson, Bellarmino Fagolur, Quilva Isims, Denae Johnny, Jolene Joseph, Clement Kazuma, Eudora Lucio, Hulda Lukas, Lyndon Masami, Itwong Ngiraikelau, Lakolani Olngellel, Rilang Roberto, Uroi Salii, John Tasurmwai, Wiles Tmecherur, Shelley Ueki, Flora Wasisang, and Courtney Joshua. PRCS training instructors were Michelle Ueda and Aileen Mikel. Both instructors are alumni of the college and currently working at Palau Red Cross Society.

PCC take this opportunity and thanked PRCS board members, administration, and staff for their assistance in this invaluable training.
