PCC Students to Participate in Jenesys Exchange Program

PCC Dean of Students Sherman Daniel with Ngedikes A. Hideo from Embassy of Japan in Palau and PCC students

On November 19, 2019 Palau Community College students met with Dean Sherman Daniel, Embassy of Japan Public Relations Assistant Ngedikes Anna Hideo, and Embassy of Japan administrative staff Mayu Tatsuki for a one-hour orientation for PCC students who will be participating in the 2019 Japan-East Asia Network of Exchange for Students and Youths (JENESYS) and Association for Promotion of International Cooperation (APIC). Both programs provide students and youths to learn more about Japan under various themes including: Sports; Peace building, history and culture; Trade, investment and tourism; Disaster prevention and reconstruction; Japanese language and culture; ocean resources and conservation; and Environment and Energy. Also will experience homestay with local Japanese families, engage with peers at local high schools and universities, visit local ministries, councils and policy makers while also exploring museums, innovative infrastructure and cultural sites.
