PCC Celebrates Its 21st Charter Day

PCC students registering for the "President's Run & Walk" Event

Today marks the 21st Charter Day of Palau Community College! In celebration, PCC hosted its annual "President's Run & Walk" Event. This morning, runners and walkers gathered at the Palau National Track & Field to register for the run & walk. The course began at the Palau National Track & Field, circulated the President of the Republic's Office in Meyuns, and ended at the national track & field.

Approximately two-hundred (200) runners & walkers registered for the event. The first hundred runners and two-hundred walkers received a free PCC t-shirt. In addition, all participants of the event were given a complimentary breakfast courtesy of the PCC Cafeteria.

Jerry Imano was the first male runner to complete the circuit. He timed in at 48:36 and was followed by Jan Skoudam who clocked in at 1:03:37. Medardo Rehono was the third male runner to complete the course. The first female runner was Sister Keetch (1:21:11) and the second was Sister Mika (1:21:12). Beckwin Mechol was the first child to complete the course with a time of 57:54. 21 CHARTER DAY, CONTINUED ON PAGE 3

Guam Upward Bound Donation

On Monday, March 30, 2015 a group of students from the Guam TRIO Upward Bound Program visited the campus of Palau Community College (PCC). The students were accompanied by Guam TRIO Programs Director Yoichi Rengiil. During their visit, the group presented a donation of $200 to PCC President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei, PCC Vice President of Administration & Finance Jay Olegeriil, PCC Director of Development Tehuzie Tadao, and PCC Executive Assistant to the President Todd Ngiramengior in support of the PCC Endowment Fund. On behalf of the college, PCC President Dr. Tellei thanked the students and their director for their generous donation. He expressed gratitude especially to the students in the Guam TRIO programs who have been donating to the PCC Endowment Fund for the past twenty years. GUAM UPWARD, CONTINUED ON PAGE 2

PCC Faculty Attend FAMED Workshop

Faculty attending the FAMED Workshop at the PCC Assembly Hall

A workshop for the faculty members of Palau Community College (PCC) was held on Friday, March 20, 2015. It was conducted by Accreditation Liaisons Officer (ALO) Deikola Olikong and Associate Dean of Academic Affairs Marianne Temaungil. The workshop focused on the FAMED Process which is the institutional assessment, planning, and implementation process that requires all programs/departments to be evaluated on a regular basis on their quality of service and overall effectiveness. Faculty members spent the day assessing their courses and integrating the assessment/evaluation results into the overall institutional planning & implementation. The workshop also focused on how to analyze data via TracDat® which is a flexible software system that helps institutions align planning initiatives, review, and reflect on academic & non-academic outcomes.

Because of their donation, the PCC Endowment Fund has continued to grow in order to help sustain the future programs and stability of Palau's only institution of higher learning. The Upward Bound students who presented the donation were Deidra Cruz (George Washington High School), Ashley Chu (John F. Kennedy High School), Franoylynn Mesnon (John F. Kennedy High School), Destini Fejeran (George Washington High School), and Javan Santos (George Washington High School). They were in Palau until April 03, 2015 learning about the culture and traditions of the island. The students also donated to the Belau Modekngel School where they conducted a cultural exchange with the students.

Emergency Medical Technician Training

Palau Civil Action Team (CAT) 84-03

Palau Community College (PCC) in collaboration with the Palau Civic Action Team (CAT) 84-03, Ministry of Health - Emergency Health Program, and the Palau Community Action Agency (PCAA) will be offering the Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) Training starting on Monday, April 06, 2015. The training will consist of three-hundred (300) hours and will continue until December of this year.

Captain Estela Ruiz from the Palau CAT 84-03 has volunteered to teach the course. Back in 2008, the Civic Action Team supported PCC by launching a similar training session to help the local fire department crew. The training being offered now is in response to a high demand for training that is needed to build capacity that supports the Fire Department Crew and Aircraft Rescue & Fire-Fighting Division of the Ministry of Justice.

For more information, please contact the PCC Continuing Education (CE) Division at (tel): 488-6223.
