Coram Violet ND, UVI Associate Provost & Grants Program Director Dr. James Maddirala, Mrs. Rajeswari Maddirala, PCC Dean of Academic Affairs Robert Ramarui, and PCC Director of the Learning Resource Center Vernice Rechebei

On Friday, November 04, 2016 a group of officials from the University of the Virgin Islands (UVI) paid a courtesy visit to the campus of Palau Community College (PCC). The group met with PCC Cooperative Research & Extension (CRE) Vice President Thomas Taro, PCC Dean of Academic Affairs Robert Ramarui, and PCC Director of the Learning Resource Center (LRC) Vernice Rechebei to discuss the Distance Education Grant. The grants program at PCC is under the direction of PCC Vice President Taro and the co-direction of LRC Director Rechebei.

The visitors were UVI Associate Provost Dr. James Maddirala (Director of the UVI Grants Program), Associate Director of the UVI Institute of Leadership (UVI-ILOE) and Naturopathic Physician Wendy Coram Violet (UVI Grants Program Assistant Director), and Mrs. Rajeswari Maddirala. In addition to the Distance Education Grant, the UVI officials also exchanged information regarding the possibility of further collaboration with PCC in the areas of faculty development. CE Crisis Response Training

From Wednesday, October 05, 2016 to Friday, October 07, 2016 the Continuing Education (CE) Department of Palau Community College (PCC) hosted a Crisis Response Training. Instructor for the training was Clinical Psychiatrist Dr. Sylvia Wally. The only trained psychiatrist in Palau, Dr. Wally's professional experience includes being the Director of the Palau Bureau of Behavioral Health and providing mental wellness assistance in communities across the region of Micronesia. During the Crisis Response Training, Dr. Wally focused on teaching the participants about the proper methods for assisting individuals who have endured an emotional straining or traumatic situation. She highlighted the importance of leading the individuals to a place of positive well-being by promoting the practices of forgiveness, understanding, and analysis of the situation. Eleven (11) individuals from the Bureau of Public Safety and the Ministry of Health participated in the three-day training.

Founded in 1962, UVI is a public, co-ed, land-grant HBCU (Historically Black College and University) in the United States Virgin Islands (USVI). Approximately 2,500 students are enrolled on the two (2) campuses: the Albert A. Sheen Campus on St. Croix and the St. Thomas Campus. The institution offers forty-seven (47) undergraduate & graduate degree programs across its five colleges and schools.

The UVI group that visited PCC had previously visited the University of Guam. They are planning to continue their visits to the College of Micronesia in the Federated States of Micronesia (COM-FSM) and the College of the Marshall Islands (CMI).

The event also provided the general public with print information regarding communicable diseases. Individuals who visited the tent participated in education & counseling sessions on communicable diseases. Also provided were free check-ups for communicable diseases as well as the overall physical fitness (weight, height, and blood pressure).

A communicable disease is one that is spread from one person to another through a variety of ways such as contact with blood or bodily fluids, breathing in an airborne virus, or by being bitten by an insect. The CDU encourages the public to participate in regular health check-ups and tests in order to prevent the spread of diseases.

For more information about communicable diseases or health-related topics, you may contact the PCC Health Resource Center at (tel): 488-8618. You may also contact the Health Information Resource Center at (tel): 488-1757/8618.
