Tellei, Deputy Director Rokobati Tezero, Deputy Captain Superintendent Etekieru Iona, and Dean of Student Service Sherman Danial*

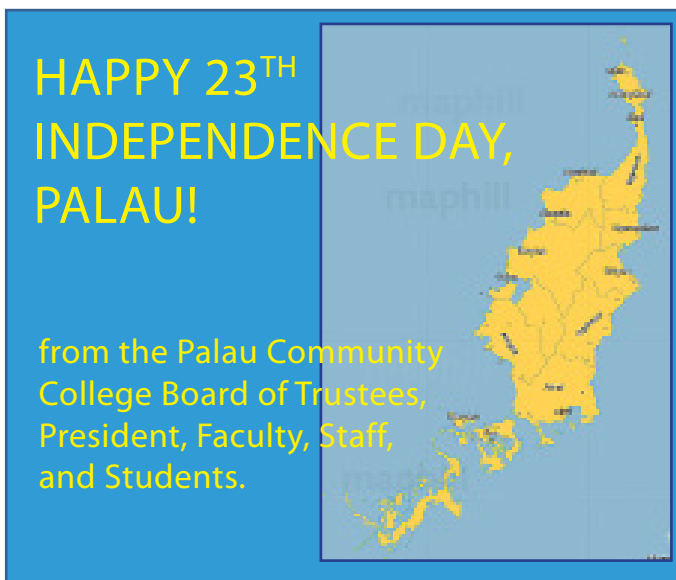

On Wednesday, September 20, 2017 The Republic of Kiribati's Ministry of Labour and Human Resource Development under the leadership of Minister Ioteba Redfern visited the campus of Palau Community College. Honorable Minister Redfern and his entourage met with PCC President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei and the PCC leadership team. During the meeting, PCC President Tellei gave a special presentation on the college programs and services. The Republic of Kiribati Ministry of Labour and Human Resource Development currently has four divisions: Administration, Labour, Marine Training Centre (MTC), and Kiribati Institute of Technology (KIT). The Administration division sets the overall strategic direction of the Ministry as well as provides administrative support for the efficient operation of the Ministry and its Institutes. Support services offered by administration includes human resource management and planning, budget formulation and management, building maintenance, registry and IT. The Labour division is to support Technical, Vocational Education and Training, Overseas Employment, workplace compliance, and Occupational Health and Safety. The MTC division is responsible for training individuals interested to work as seafarer. The fourth division under the Ministry of Labour and HRD is Kiribati Institute of Technology (KIT) which is responsible for providing high quality courses and qualifications in a broad range of discipline areas for the people of Kiribati. Such academic discipline are Business, Accounting, Automotive Mechanical, Electro-technology and Construction. In addition, KIT builds additional skills into all of its training programs that include courses on spoken and written English and Information Technology skills.

Adult High School Orientation

Dean of Continuing Education Jefferson Thomas, AHS Counselor Hedrick Kual, AHS teachers and students during orientation

Adult High School held their orientation on September 18, 2017 at the Palau Community College (PCC) Conference Room. The orientation began with opening remarks by Counselor Hedrick Kual followed by special remarks from Dean of Continuing Education Jefferson Thomas. Dean Thomas encourages students and challenges them to study hard and work with the AHS staff/teachers to make their learning experience more rewarding and beneficial. The Adult High program comprises of two tracks offered to students who wish to enter the work force or to pursue post secondary institution. Each course length is ninety (90) hours. The Adult High Program's goal is to provide an opportunity for adult Palauans to earn a high school diploma and gain valuable occupational skills to improve their lives and their choice of careers. The program at the Main Campus at Palau Community College runs on a semester basis.
