Course Description As It Will Appear in the Catalog:

This course assists the prospective teachers in evaluating personal qualifications in light of the criteria for successful classroom teaching and helps the students make a well-informed decision for or against a career in teaching. The course will also provide students an opportunity to observe actual classroom teaching and learning; be familiarized with the responsibilities of a classroom teacher, teaching materials and the general operation of a school; and will have an opportunity to discuss and share their observations and findings. Pre: A minimum TOEFL score of 450. (2 credits lec., 1 credit lab).

The following changes need to be applied to each track (Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education, Special Education, Secondary Education) under Education Program (ED) effective Fall 2013.

- Change ED 110 Introduction to Teaching to ED 110 Introduction to Teaching / Practicum
- Delete ED 192 Practicum: Observation & Participation

Copy of this addendum will ^{be} posted in the college website: www.palau.edu.
