

Assessment Impact by Course Objectives
Palau Community College
Program (CPH) - Community & Public Health

Program (CPH) - Community & Public Health

CLO: CPH 144 - Non-Communicable Diseases 1: CLO 1

Describe and discuss the definitions and main characteristics of cancers in man.

CLO Assessment Cycle: 2013 - 2014 (Spring 2014)

CLO Status: Active

Means of Assessment
Means of Assessment	Expected Student Performance	Notes	Active
Describe and discuss the definitions and main characteristics of cancers in man.  Signature assignment: Final Exam	70% of the students assessed will perform at the proficiency level.	The CPH program is a new program which had adjunct faculty teaching the courses the first academic year. As such, the adjunct instructor was not able to assess the course. With the full time position of program head now filled, the courses are now being assessed on a regular basis.	Yes

Results
Summary of Data Collected	Use of Results	Follow-Up	Semester Assessed
No Results reported.

CLO: CPH 144 - Non-Communicable Diseases 1: CLO 2

Describe and discuss signs, symptoms, prevention and treatment of cancer.

CLO Assessment Cycle: 2013 - 2014 (Spring 2014)

CLO Status: Active

Means of Assessment
Means of Assessment	Expected Student Performance	Notes	Active
Describe and discuss signs, symptoms, prevention and treatment of cancer.  Signature assignment: Final Exam	70% of the students assessed will perform at the proficiency level.	The CPH program is a new program which had adjunct faculty teaching the courses the first academic year. As such, the adjunct instructor was not able to assess the course. With the full time position of program head now filled, the courses are now being assessed on a regular basis.	Yes

Results
Summary of Data Collected	Use of Results	Follow-Up	Semester Assessed
No Results reported.

No Results reported.

CLO: CPH 144 - Non-Communicable Diseases 1: CLO 3

Describe and discuss the definitions and main characteristics of coronary heart disease.

CLO Assessment Cycle: 2013 - 2014 (Spring 2014)

CLO Status: Active

Means of Assessment
Means of Assessment	Expected Student Performance	Notes	Active
Describe and discuss the definitions and main characteristics of coronary heart disease.  Signature assignment: Final Exam	70% of the students assessed will perform at the proficiency level.	The CPH program is a new program which had adjunct faculty teaching the courses the first academic year. As such, the adjunct instructor was not able to assess the course. With the full time position of program head now filled, the courses are now being assessed on a regular basis.	Yes

Results
Summary of Data Collected	Use of Results	Follow-Up	Semester Assessed
No Results reported.

CLO: CPH 144 - Non-Communicable Diseases 1: CLO 4

Describe and discuss the risk factors, their avoidance and prevention of CHD in general.

CLO Assessment Cycle: 2013 - 2014 (Spring 2014)

CLO Status: Active

Means of Assessment
Means of Assessment	Expected Student Performance	Notes	Active
Describe and discuss the risk factors, their avoidance and prevention of CHD in general.  Signature assignment: Final Exam	70% of the students assessed will perform at the proficiency level.	The CPH program is a new program which had adjunct faculty teaching the courses the first academic year. As such, the adjunct instructor was not able to assess the course. With the full time position of program head now filled, the courses are now being assessed on a regular basis.	Yes

Results
Summary of Data Collected	Use of Results	Follow-Up	Semester Assessed
No Results reported.

CLO: CPH 144 - Non-Communicable Diseases 1: CLO 5

Discuss and describe the characteristics and risk factors of gout and arthritis.

CLO Assessment Cycle: 2013 - 2014 (Spring 2014)

CLO Status: Active

Means of Assessment
Means of Assessment	Expected Student Performance	Notes	Active
Discuss and describe the characteristics and risk factors of gout and arthritis  Signature assignment: Final Exam	70% of the students assessed will perform at the proficiency level.	The CPH program is a new program which had adjunct faculty teaching the courses the first academic year. As such, the adjunct instructor was not able to assess the course. With the full time position of program head now filled, the courses are now being assessed on a regular basis.	Yes

Results
Summary of Data Collected	Use of Results	Follow-Up	Semester Assessed
No Results reported.

CLO: CPH 144 - Non-Communicable Diseases 1: CLO 6

Describe and discuss signs, symptoms, prevention and treatment of gout and arthritis.

CLO Assessment Cycle: 2013 - 2014 (Spring 2014)

CLO Status: Active

Means of Assessment
Means of Assessment	Expected Student Performance	Notes	Active
Describe and discuss signs, symptoms, prevention and treatment of gout and arthritis.  Signature assignment: Final Exam	70% of the students assessed will perform at the proficiency level.	The CPH program is a new program which had adjunct faculty teaching the courses the first academic year. As such, the adjunct instructor was not able to assess the course. With the full time position of program head now filled, the courses are now being assessed on a regular basis.	Yes

Results
Summary of Data Collected	Use of Results	Follow-Up	Semester Assessed
No Results reported.			