

Assessment Impact by Course Objectives
Palau Community College
Program (CPH) - Community & Public Health

Program (CPH) - Community & Public Health

CLO: CPH 231 - Food & Nutrition in the Life Cycle: CLO 1

Describe and discuss the basic principles and concepts of nutrition.

CLO Assessment Cycle: 2014-2015 (Spring 2015)

CLO Status: Active

Means of Assessment
Means of Assessment	Expected Student Performance	Notes	Active
Demonstrate understanding of the basic principles and concepts of nutrition. Signature assignment: Test	70% of the students assessed will perform at the proficiency level.	The CPH program is a new program and this course has not been offered yet. 2/6/16	Yes

Results
Summary of Data Collected	Use of Results	Follow-Up	Semester Assessed
No Results reported.

CLO: CPH 231 - Food & Nutrition in the Life Cycle: CLO 2

Describe and discuss the anthropometric measures and growth monitoring parameters.

CLO Assessment Cycle: 2014-2015 (Spring 2015)

CLO Status: Active

Means of Assessment
Means of Assessment	Expected Student Performance	Notes	Active
Demonstrate understanding of the anthropometric measures and growth monitoring parameters. Signature assignment: Test	70% of the students assessed will perform at the proficiency level.	The CPH program is a new program and this course has not been offered yet. 2/6/16	Yes

Results
Summary of Data Collected	Use of Results	Follow-Up	Semester Assessed
No Results reported.

CLO: CPH 231 - Food & Nutrition in the Life Cycle: CLO 3

Describe and discuss the main signs of inadequate or excessive nutrition.

CLO Assessment Cycle: 2014-2015 (Spring 2015)

CLO Status: Active

Means of Assessment

Means of Assessment	Expected Student Performance	Notes	Active
Demonstrate understanding of the main signs of inadequate or excessive nutrition. Signature assignment: Test	70% of the students assessed will perform at the proficiency level.	The CPH program is a new program and this course has not been offered yet. 2/6/16	Yes

Results

Summary of Data Collected	Use of Results	Follow-Up	Semester Assessed
No Results reported.			