PCC Security Officers Deputized

Front: PCC President Patrick U. Tellei and Bureau of Public Safety Director Aloysius Alonz with PCC Security Officers

On Friday, December 22, 2017 three PCC security officers were officially deputized by the Bureau of Public Safety's Director Aloysius Alonz. The ceremony took place at the PCC Assembly Hall and was witnessed by the security officers' families, friends, members of the PCC college community, as well as the Chiefs under the Bureau of Public Safety (BPS). In his remarks during the ceremony, Director Alonz congratulated the newly deputized officers and emphasized the importance of close collaboration between PCC and the BPS to ensure the safety and security of not just the College campus, but the overall community as whole. PCC President Patrick U. Tellei thanked Director Alonz and the BPS chiefs for helping in coordinating the ceremony and invited them to the School's annual Christmas luncheon held later the same day. PCC security officers who were deputized are Mr. John Tasurmwai Security Services Supervisor,
