Palau 8th Graders Transition Workshop Held at PCC

Inset: Minister Baklai Temengil-Chilton giving keynote address to students during 8th Grade transition workshop at PCC Cafeteria

On May 10 to 11, 2018 a workshop aimed at eighth grade students from local elementary schools in Palau was held at the Palau Community College (PCC) Cafeteria. The workshop focused on providing the students with advice as well as information that may help them succeed socially & academically in their upcoming four (4) years of high school.

The first day opened with a prayer from SDA Vice Principal Nelson Sisior. Palau National Anthem was sung by all 8th Graders, Minister of Education Sinton Soalablabai gave a warm welcoming remarks. Minister of Community & Cultural Affairs, Ms. Baklai Temengil-Chilton gave a keynote address focusing on habits of effective students. In her presentation, she encouraged students to schedule their study hours, set goals to be accomplished, never procrastinate, review class notes prior to study session, utilize study groups, and tackle difficult assignment first. Dr. Victor Yano & Ms. Josepha Tiobech from Belau Wellness Center gave a special presentation on family wellness program's best practices to encourage both students and parents. This was also an opportunity for the students to meet and learn more about each other.
