PCC CELEBRATES 25 YEARS OF SUCCESS! ALUMNI PROFILE

Henaro Ngirailild
Class of 2002
Certificate of Accomplishment - Air
Conditioning & Refrigeration

My name is Henaro Ngirailild I moved back to Palau in 1998. Minimum wage was too low so I decided to go to school to open a business - and Yes I did! I had a job on campus and I had an internship as well. The instructors who made a change in my life were Dr. Patrick U. Tellei and Marianne Temaungil. What I liked about PCC was learning skills such as welding and electronic troubleshooting aside from AC & Refrigeration. I had work study as an English tutor and my time at PCC made me realize it was never too late. Since graduation, I opened my shop in 2003 and was in operation until 2016. I did other ventures until 2018 and now I work at the ROP President's Office as an AC Technician. My position as an AC Technician at the President's Satellite Office bi-weekly maintenance schedule and quarterly. My future ventures include reopening my shop with helpers. In my free time, I enjoy fishing. The only thing I want to tell first time students is to Follow Your Dream.
