Emergency Medical Technician Training Updates

Inset: Instructor Edward Caballero and Director of Bureau of Public Safety Aloysius Alonz

Monday, July 30, 2018 The participants of the Emergency Medical Technician training were treated to a health meal held at PCC Chibokil Building. During this time, Instructor Edward Caballero from Kapio'lani Community College gave an update of the training progress and modules including an overview of what the participants have learned and how they are doing so far.

Bureau of Public Safety Director Aloysius Alonz gave a word of encouragement and instill motivation to trainees who are committed to be trained as EMT responders. He lamented on the role of a being an EMT responder and should be proud of who they are and what they do to help the civilians in our community. Also present to show support to the EMT trainees were Dean of CE Jefferson Thomas and Ministry of Health, Acting Director of Emergency Health Program Ritter B. Udui. The EMT training is currently half-way through its required training modules and expected to be completed by Tuesday, August 14, 2018. For more information on the EMT training and the upcoming trainings please contact Dean Jefferson Thomas at PCC Continuing Education @ 488-2470/1 ext. 243

CMI Representatives Visit PCC

Monday, July 30, 2018 Palau Community College President Tellei and administrators met with the College of Marshall Islands Vice President of Business & Administrative Affairs Stevenson Kottol and Development Education Department Chair Jeniffer Seru.
