The presentation opened with welcoming remarks from PCC Dean of Continuing Education Willy Wally. He acknowledged how teaching the young people of Palau

Palau Community College is an accessible public educational institution helping to meet the technical, academic, cultural, social, and economic needs of students and communities by promoting learning opportunities and developing personal excellence.

about their culture and traditions was an important endeavor that should be supported by the entire community. This idea was echoed in the remarks that followed from the culture class instructors. that should be supported by the entire community.

The 2018 Summer Kids Program offered summer classes for a period of six (6) weeks.

The cultural classes taught the students about traditional chants, legends, and dances. The students also learned and practiced traditional skills, such as weaving baskets.

During their presentation at the KSG Assembly Hall, the summer kids showcased their knowledge of Palauan legends & mythology via a skit. A representative from each class then explained the different methods of weaving that they had learned. The students also took turns performing traditional chants.

Instructors for the summer cultural program were Dilrengchel Sariang Timulch, Rosalinda Ngiraului, Oingerang Erungel, Diluchur Ruluked, Kemedadol Benedict Tellei, Jury Kebekol, Hermana Ramarui, Frutoso Tellei, Floriano Felix and Albert Soaladaob. PCC & Koror State Government thank all the instructors for giving their time to teach the students this summer!

Academic Affairs Fall 2018 Meeting
