On Tuesday, October 02, 2018 His Excellency Dr. Jozsef Bencze, Ambassador of Hungary in the Philippines and Deputy Chief of Mission David Ambrus visited Palau Community College campus and donated various non-fiction, fiction, and children books to Tan Siu Lin PCC Library. On hand to receive donated books was Vice President of Administration & Finance Jay Olegeriil.

Ambassador Bencze is the head of the mission in Embassy of Manila - Hungary which oversees diplomatic relations between the two countries in areas of economic development, cultural exchange, and educational and institutional relations. As such, Hungary offers educational scholarship that provides opportunity for Filipino students to attend colleges and/or universities in Hungary.

Palau Community College welcomed and thanked Ambassador Bencze for his much needed book donation.

Care-Giving program continues to be offered to interested individual. The participants of this training are taught by volunteer instructors to provide needed basic care-giving skills. The training session is one-week in which various modules are taught each night of the week. Each module covers different aspect of caregiving such as proper way to prepare meals for a patient, personal hygiene, and different illnesses that may plague a patient. In addition, trainees learn how to deal with the emotional and physical stresses of the occupation.

PCC, Ministry of Health, and Palau Red Cross Society congratulate participants for completing the training and thank them for taking part on this very worthy and humble training to assist our elders and bedridden family members.
