Upward Bound Holds Student Orientation in Assembly Hall

Upward Bound program orientation for new and continuing participants in PCC Assembly Hall

Palau Community College - Upward Bound Program held their Fall Student Orientation on Monday, October 2, 2017 for the 2017-2018 Academic Year. Students from the local high schools attended the session to learn more about the Upward Bound classes, workshops, and related program information.

The orientation session opened with remarks from Assistant Program Director Helen Immanuel. In which she informed students about the program goals, class schedule, tutoring, and workshops. Later in the orientation, students from Palau High School, Emmaus-Bethania High School, and Palau Mission Academy introduced themselves and got to know their counselors and other fellow classmates.

PCC Upward Bound Program provides fundamental support and opportunities for high school students who seek to succeed in their pre-college performance and ultimately their higher education endeavors. Its goal is to increase the rate at which its participants complete their secondary education and enroll in or graduate from institutions of higher education. It is one of the eight (8) TRiO programs funded by the U.S. Department of Education.

LRC Conducts MLA Workshop in PCC Assembly Hall

LRC instructor Deidre Yamanguchi speaks to students during MLA workshop

On Tuesday, October 23, 2018 Palau Community College Learning Resource Center conducted a Modern Language Association (MLA) documentation style.

This workshop offered information about using MLA properly by practicing and editing in-text citations, group presentation using MLA style, citation generators, digital sources, plagiarism and academic dishonesty. In addition, students were provided information on basic formatting of a research paper such as margins, heading and title, running head with page numbers, placement of list of work cited, tables and illustrations, corrections and insertions on printout, and binding and final printout. Learning Resource Center encouraged students to make use of the MLA documentation style to have a well written and professional look research paper. For more information on MLA, Please contact Learning Resource Center at 488- 3073
