Care-Giver Training Graduation at Ngatpang

PCC, MOH, and Palau Red Cross Officials with Ngatpang Care-Giver Training participants

On the evening of November 2, 2018 Palau Community College, Ministry of Health, and Palau Red Cross Society were on hand to congratulate nine (9) trainees from Ngatpang State who completed one week of Care-Giver Training. Dr. Sylvia Osarch the lead instructor commended the participants for their commitment and support throughout the entire week and reminded them to apply what they have learned to support and care for the elders. PCC Dean of Continuing Education Jefferson Thomas closing remarks emphasized the need of this training to continue to be offered to assist elderly and bedridden. On hand to confer certificate of completion were PCC Dean of Continuing Education Jefferson Thomas and Speaker of Ngatpang State Mr. Edwin Arurang.

Care-Giver participants were Alfonso Ngirngotel, Bingham Mers Tarkong, Constantino Ngiraked, Derbei Blodak, Doris Osilek, Ening Reblud, Francesca Otong, Huzie Orak, and Rosang Osilek. Also present were training instructors Dr. Sylvia Osarch and Amos Solomon. The Care-Giver Training continues to be offered. The next training scheduled from November 9 - 11, 2018 at Palau Community College Continuing Education training room. For more information about the training contact Dean Jefferson Thomas at 488-2470 ext. 243

PCC Childcare Center Halloween Activity

PCC Child Care teachers and chaperones escorting students during their trick or treat visit
On Wednesday, October 31, 2018 Palau Community College Childcare Center visited campus offices for a Halloween Trick-or-Treat. The college was able to prepare a lot of goodies for our very own young students who were very eager and excited to receive their surprises.

The college would like to extend its sincere gratitude to all offices: Office of the President, Human Resources, Business, Registrar, LRC, Dean of Students, Development, Academic Affairs, Faculty Senate Association, PCC Library, Online Lab, Accreditation Office, and CTE Academy who took part in making our childrens' campus experiencea memorable one.

PCC Receives Endowment Support

The Palau Community College (PCC) continues to receive additional support from the local businesses, friends, and individuals who in the spirit of thanksgiving purchase raffle drawing tickets, give cash donations, and/or in-kind donation to support the college. PCC welcomes all interested groups and/or individuals who wish to buy tickets and/or donating to contact Development Office at 488-2470/1 extension 251, 252, and 253.
