PCC CE Computer Training Concludes

ASPCC Hosts "Fun Night"

PCC President Patrick U. Tellei, Dean Jefferson Thomas, PPUC Public Relations Officer Desiree Ngirameked and PPUC Human Resources Adeline Santos with training participants

On May 09, 2019 Palau Community College Continuing Education (CE) offered Basic Microsoft Office training to Palau Public Utilities Corporation staff.

PCC Information Technology Program Associate Professor Ms. Johvanna Yaoch conducted a ten-hour training on Microsoft Applications. The training participants were able to learn the basic skills in Microsoft Word, Excel, and Outlook by navigating applications interface, editing and formatting text, manipulate images, editing formulas, insert and use tables, work with columns and breaks, consolidate data, and create charts. President Dr. Tellei gave welcoming remarks and information about available trainings offered by the college that are called Open Entry - Open Exit programs. Dr. Tellei also noted that this summer, CE will be offering summer kids program and other trainings for interested community members. Also present to witness the awarding of certificates were PPUC public relations officer Desiree Ngirameked and Human Resources representative Adeline Santos. The participants of the training were Blake Yuri, Indira Ngirkelau, Justino Sakaziro, Katrek Beches, Kione Wayland Skilang, Linda Ngiralmu, Lomisang Kuartei, Mc O'neal Renguul, Michael Renguul, Melissa K. Malsol, Peter Tadao, Riley Kertou, and Samantha Skebong.

Republic of Palau Student Organization performing contemporary dance at cafeteria

The Associated Students of Palau Community College (ASPCC) hosted the end-of-the-spring semester "Fun Night" on the evening of Friday, May 03, 2019. The "Fun Night" themed event was open to all students plus guests. Performances for the evening included dance numbers by the student organizations of the Republic of Palau students organization. A local band was also present to perform throughout the night. The officers of ASPCC also sponsored open dance competition for interested students. The purpose of the event was to have all students get together and socialize prior to the end of the semester. ASPCC officers would like to thank Dean Sherman Daniel and Advisor Dean Jefferson Thomas for their assistance and logistical support. They also extend their thanks to the local artists who performed at the event. Lastly, ASPCC would like to thank the PCC administration for their support which made the event possible.

SPECIAL BULLETIN May 07, 2019

To: PCC Faculty, Staff, Students, and members of the general public

Re: Removal of Unattended Vehicle

This is to inform all college faculty, staff, students, and members of the general public that with the rise of unattended and derelict vehicles on campus parking lots and the need to have access to parking space, The college will take measures to remove all unattended vehicles on the college premises starting Wednesday, May 22, 2019.

To ensure that we adequately accommodate our students and community patrons, the college is asking everyone for their cooperation by removing their vehicles that have been left unattended.

I am confident that everyone will, as always, contribute what they can to see that this notice will be realized resulting in improved services to our students and customers.

Thank you everyone for your assistance and cooperation on this matter. If you have any questions on this matter, please contact Vice President Jay Olegeriil at 488-2470/1
