SDSU Master's Cohort Begins PA 600 Course

PCC President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei giving welcoming remarks and words of encouragement to SDSU Master's Cohort at the Assembly Hall

On November 05, 2020 San Diego State University Master's Cohort held a meeting at Assembly Hall to prepare for the second course of the program. Present to welcome and provides words of encouragement were PCC President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei and course facilitator Ms. Sandra Pierantozzi.

The meeting also meant for a socializing with delicious plates of various protein, starch, and desserts. Also present were the families and friends of the SDSU students. A short course introduction was virtually delivered by Dr. Theresa Lally in a power point format for students to get a glimpse of what the course entails.

The upcoming course is PA 600 titled "Scope of Public Administration". This 3 credit course will run for 8 weeks along with submission of student projects, assessments, and group activities. Students are expected to learn the knowledge and skill sets in management careers in government, community agencies, private not-for-profit organizations, planning and consulting firms and private sector companies that work in partnership with the public sector. PCC congratulates SDSU master's cohort in completing their first course and wishes them the best of luck for the remainder of the program.

PCC Students Participates in the U.S. Veterans Day Parade

On November 11, 2020 Palau Community College students joined the Veterans of U.S. Armed Forces in Palau (VUSAFP) to commemorate the U.S. Veterans Day. This is the first time that VUSAFP holds such event to recognize Palauans in the armed forces who paid the ultimate sacrifice in serving and defending both U.S. of America and the Republic of Palau since September 11, 2001 attack on the United States.

Participating students were from Palau, FSM states of Yap, Kosrae, Pohnpei and the Republic of the Marshall Islands.

Also participating were Republic of Palau Bureau of Public Safety, Office of the U.S. Ambassador, Civic Action Team, and local agencies and organizations.

The VUSAFP association was initiated in April 2019 with the common goal of aiding and assisting veterans residing in Palau. Current President of the Association is Mr. Greg Ngirmang, former Minister of Health.

SDSU BACHELOR'S COHORT WADE-IN ON THE LAST COURSE OF THE PROGRAM

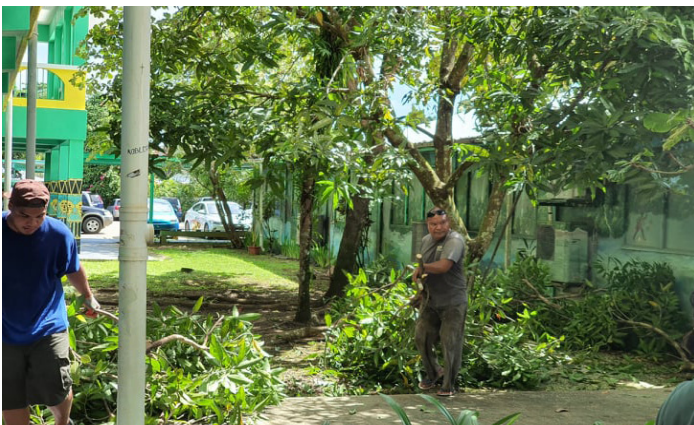

SDSU Bachelor's Cohort Class of 2021

SDSU bachelor's cohort begins their last course of the program.

For the past three years, SDSU Bachelor's Cohort students have been working briskly to complete all course requirements needed to complete the bachelor degree program. As intense it may be, the 29 students who all started at the same time are still together and more dedicated than ever to finish and graduate.

This capstone course is titled ARP 499 with the focus on Reading, Writing and Thinking Connections and Conversational Skills in a classroom setting.

PCC CRE RESEARCHERS & STAFF GRAFTING MANGO TREES

On November 10, 2020 PCC Cooperative Research & Extension Researchers Dr. Nwe and Felix Sengebau with staff grafted mango trees behind Adult High School office. The intent of such method is to allow more sunlight for likelihood of sprouting flowers and eventually bear fruits. PCC thanked CRE staff for work that they do to also beautify the campus.
