FSA Holds Scholarship Awarding Ceremony

Faculty Senate Association during regular meeting at Academic Affairs Faculty Conference room

On November 19, 2020 Palau Community College Faculty Senate Association (FSA) held a scholarship awarding ceremony at Faculty Conference room. This is an annual ceremony to recognize and congratulate PCC students who applied for the association's scholarship for academic year 2020-2021. The scholarships are offered to both the first year and second year students who maintain cumulative grade point average of 3.0 in any field of study. The recipient of the scholarship will be awarded $250 for Fall & Spring semester. FSA is a non-profit educational association dedicated to support student learning opportunities and academic excellence. Each year, the FSA holds Gentlemen's Gourment fundraising event to raise needed funds to support its student scholarship program. FSA will announce the recipients of this year's scholarship award in the next issue.

PCC Classified Staff Organization Meets to Plan for Annual Activities

CSO Regular Meeting

On November 18, 2020 Palau Community College Classified Staff Organization (CSO) held its regular meeting at Continuing Education training room to discuss and plan for annual activities.

The organization's officers present to conduct the meeting were CSO President Lyndon Masami, Vice President Debbie Ngirai bai, Treasurer Tessmarie Kodep, and Secretary Dilubch Samil. The organization plans to clean and maintain the college campus area between the library and National Track & Field, Implement the Otes Act for paid members to receive organization's retirement package which include previous CSO members: Itwong Ngirai kelau and Marlyne Olkeriil. In addition to retirement benefit, the organization continues to support Summer Kids program with needed school supplies and/or cash donations. CSO also planned an annual Rock Island retreat scheduled for the end of the year.

Palau Community College is an accessible comprehensive public educational institution helping to meet the technical, academic, cultural, social, and economic needs of students and communities by promoting learning opportunities and developing personal excellence.
