PCC CTE ATTENDED 8TH GRADE TRANSITIONAL WORKSHOP

Inset: ROP President Surangel Whipps, Jr., Gaafar Uherbelau, Dean of Academic Affairs/ALO Deikola Olikong with CTE Lab School students

On April 22-23, 2021 a workshop aimed at eighth grade students from local elementary schools in Palau was held at the Palau Community College (PCC) Cafeteria. The workshop focused on providing the students with advice as well as information that may help them succeed socially & academically in their upcoming four (4) years of high school.

The first day opened with a prayer from Ngeremlengui Principal Patricia Franz. Palau National Anthem sung by two 8th Graders from each school, and Director Raynold Mechol gave a warm welcoming remarks. Emergency Operation Center (EOP) Deputy Incident Commander Gaafar Uherbelau gave a keynote address focusing on life experience and communication following President Surangel Whipps, Jr. special remarks encouraged students to take responsibility in their course of study and utilize their talents to dream and achieve both life goals. PCC ALO & Dean of Academic Affairs Deikola Olikong a workshop panelist discussed CTE lab school program and what is expected if students decided to enroll in the program.

PCC Maintenance Mobilizes Campus Clean-Up and Repairs Due to Typhoon Surigae

PCC Maintenance removing debris and fallen tree trunk on campus

This week, Palau Community College Maintenance are working tirelessly to clear the college campus of debris and fallen tree trunks including resealing and repairing damage roofs to Tekrar and Miich buildings.

One of the college well known traditional iconic meeting place for students and staff, Mesekiu Bai sustained an excessive damage to its roof due to a fallen tree branch.

Even the college main parking lot signage was swept aside by the strong wind caused by the typhoon surigae on Friday early morning. The college was engulfed with tree branches and leaves which requires college maintenance to quickly mobilized and remove wooden scraps.
