PCC Hosts U.S. CONSTITUTION DAY ACTIVITIES

Top l to r: Academic Affairs staff, CTE students and Instructor; below: PCC students participating in scavenger activity

On Friday, September 17, 2021 Palau Community College (PCC) Academic Affairs Division, Faculty Senate Association, and PCC Library hosted a U.S. Constitution Activities at the library. Over 60 students and staff took the time to commemorate the U.S. Constitution Day by visiting library to show support and participate in the scavenger activity. The activity had participants finding clues and answers to questions about the U.S. Constitution's ratification, amendments, and founding fathers. Prizes were given out to participants who answered all questions correctly. Students winners were given mobile airtime or external flashdrive; staff winners were given airtime courtesy of Academic Affairs, Faculty Senate Association, and library staff. Finger foods were served to spice up the activities. The college takes this opportunity to thank Academic Affairs Dean Olikong, Associate Dean Dr. McClain and staff; Faculty Senate Association Officers: President Johvanna Yaoch, Vice President Derbei Meyar, Secretary Cecil Meteolechol, Treasurer Frederick Mascardo and library for hosting the event.

SDSU Master's Cohort Meets Dr. Caren Sax & Dr. Sylvia Garcia-Navarrete

PCC-SDSU Master's Cohort with instructors Dr. Caren Sax & Dr. Sylvia Garcia-Navarrete, and facilitator Sandra Pierantozzi

On Wednesday, September 22, 2021 San Diego State University (SDSU) Administration, Rehabilitation, and Post Secondary-Interwork Institute Director Dr. Caren Sax and Dr. Sylvia Garcia-Navarrete visit students in SDSU Master's Cohort in the PCC Assembly Hall. During their visit, they met with PCC President Dr. Tellei and the 2021 graduating class of Interdisciplinary Bachelor's Degree program. The meeting with the master's cohort introduced the students to a new course ARP 747, Educational Leadership in a Diverse Society. The course focuses on current theory and practice in meeting needs of diverse learners with respect to leadership and administration of educational organizations as political and complex systems. This is the sixth course out of 10 required core courses to complete prior to earning a master of arts degree from SDSU.
