PCC Participated in UN Day & Olchotel Belau Fair

Newly built PCC Summer House with CRE display tables at 2021 OBF/ UN-Day celebration at Kokusai, Ngatpang State

On Sunday, October 24, 2021, Palau Community College participated in the 2021 Olechotel Belau Fair (OBF) & United Nations Day with a theme “A Klai-urenges a Didellel a Mesisiich el Kelulau” (Building Resilience Through Hope) at its newest summer house located at Kokusai, Ngatpang State. PCC Cooperative Research & Extension display tables showcased live rabbitfish and other marine species currently in the Multi-Species Hatchery. Provided information on various local root crops, fruit tree plants, and vegetable gardening plants. Visitors signed up for a free giveaway fruit tree and taro plants. CRE also provided information on different types of table top gardening methods, tissue culture plants, pest management, and germplasm conservation. PCC President Patrick U. Tellei and CRE Director Lyndon Masami were present to assist CRE staff while tending to visitors. Also present to fundraise their local style barbecue plates were Federated States of Micronesia (FSM) Yap Students, PCC Environment/Marine Science Club and Kosrae State Association. The OBF activities included opening ceremony, parade of Nations, live band, traditional and contemporary dances and traditional games. All 16 States took part in this event by showcasing their various local delicacies, arts and crafts.
