UB Alumnae Share College Advise with Students at Monthly Workshops

Dilrae Mechol (center) with Upward Bound students during workshop at Assembly Hall

The Upward Bound Program conducted two student workshops for the month of June as part of its 6-week summer component. Guest speakers who were invited to talk to students during the workshops were Upward Bound alumni Mira Eyangel Mariur, Alirah-Rosslyn Kukong Udui and Dilrae Mechol. They shared with Upward Bound students their college life experiences and offered advice and guidance on how to make the best out of their college experience, especially when living independently and far away from parents.

Mariur is a recent graduate of the University of Hawaii at Hilo with a bachelor's degree in Geology with Environmental Studies while Udui will be returning back to Hilo this fall semester as a super-senior majoring in Animal Sciences. Both Mariur and Udui are working as summer teachers for the Upward Bound Program. Mechol works as a Junior

PCC Library Read-a-Thon Summer Program Concludes

l to r: Student worker Keaholi, Jewel-Ray Nacionales, and Nikita Adachi; Acting Director of Library Service Piora Asito and Rachel Shuyun

The winners of this summer Read-a-thon program is Jewel-Ray Nacionales and Rachel Shuyun. The Read-a-thon program began on June 6th which children checked out books, read and turned in book reports each week. The primary objective for the Read-a-thon program was to encourage elementary level (age 8-12) students to read and help improve both their reading fluency and reading comprehension. The program also offered free library cards to those kids who did not have one. We want to thank our very own President Tellei for helping us with donations to this Read-a-thon program.

Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC), the Commission Third-Party Comment

A third-party comment assists the Commission as it considers applications for candidacy, accreditation, or reaffirmation of accreditation. When an institution is undergoing a review, the Commission requires the institution's chief executive officer to notify the campus community and public of the opportunity for submission of third-party comments and the process for doing so. Any member of the college community or public may submit a third-party comment by completing the Commission's online third-party comment form, available via the institution's website or ACCJC's website. In order to ensure evaluation of applicable third-party comments by the peer review team, third-party comments should be received by the Commission staff no later than five weeks before the peer review team visit.

Palau Community College will submit its Institutional-Self Evaluation Report (ISER) to the Commission no later than August 1, 2022. The College will undergo formative and summative review by the Commission in the fall of 2022 (October 2022). The College Visiting Team will visit the College in spring 2023 (March-April of 2023). Should any member of the College community or the public who may wish to submit a third-party comment must complete the Commission's online third-party comment form available at <https://accjc.org/forms/third-party-comments/>. Third-party comment should be received by the Commission five weeks prior to March 2023.
