PCC CRE & SAN DIEGO ZOO CONDUCT TISSUE CULTURE WORKSHOP

Tissue culture workshop participants at CRE Research & Development station in Ngeremlengui State

On November 2-4, 2022, Palau Community College Cooperative Research & Extension (PCC CRE) in partnership with San Diego Zoo representatives conducted a tissue culture workshop and assessment at CRE Research & Development Station. Local organizing partners who participated in this workshop were Koror State Government, Bureau of Agriculture, Belau National Museum & Ngardok Conservation staff members. The training program was also extended to include over twenty (20) PCC and Palau High School students. College agriculture program students and faculty work with San Diego Zoo on various tissue culture methods by growing plant cells, tissues, and organs in nutrient containers. Prior to San Diego Zoo workshop, CRE horticulture field assistant McKnight McArthur participated in a 5-month internship on tissue culture techniques and processes to enhance needed skills and knowledge to support the work of CRE Research & Development station.

Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC), the Commission Third-Party Comment

A third-party comment assists the Commission as it considers applications for candidacy, accreditation, or reaffirmation of accreditation. When an institution is undergoing a review, the Commission requires the institution's chief executive officer to notify the campus community and public of the opportunity for submission of third-party comments and the process for doing so. Any member of the college community or public may submit a third-party comment by completing the Commission's online third-party comment form, available via the institution's website or ACCJC's website. In order to ensure evaluation of applicable third-party comments by the peer review team, third-party comments should be received by the Commission staff no later than five weeks before the peer review team visit.

Palau Community College's Focus Site Visit is scheduled during the week of March 13, 2023. Should any member of the College community or the public who may wish to submit a third-party comment must complete the Commission's online third-party comment form available at <https://accjc.org/forms/third-party-comments/>.

The third-party comment should be received by the Commission five weeks prior to March 13, 2023.

Commission's Address: Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges
331 J Street, Suite 200
Sacramento, CA 95814
