STUDENT SERVICE HOLDS NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION FOR SUMMER SESSION AT PCC ASSEMBLY HALL

Inset: PCC President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei, new students and student service staff

On May 29, 2023 Palau Community College Student Service Division hosts a full day New Student Orientation for students attending summer session. The orientation introduced the new students to the programs and services available at the college. PCC President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei began the orientation by welcoming new students. He thanked the students for choosing PCC as the next step in their educational journey and advised the students to prioritize their learning. Dean of Students Hilda N. Reklai followed with an introduction to the services available at the college designed to help the students achieve academic success. Student Services staff in-charge of various offices were also introduced. PCC Financial Aid office staff also attended the orientation to provide information about federal financial aid and its requirements and eligibility. Students were also familiarized themselves on a short tour of campus given by the officers of the Associated Students of Palau Community College (ASPPC).

PCC BID FAREWELL TO NENA GEORGE

Nena George

Palau Community College (PCC) recently faced the unfortunate loss of fellow employee a long-time staff member, Mr. Nena George from Kosrae State, Federated States of Micronesia. Mr. George dedicated his career and services to Palau Community College since June 03, 2008 as Instructional Assistant for Agricultural Program with the Academic Affairs Division. His hard work and exceptional skill in animal sciences was evident throughout his time at PCC Cooperative Research & Extension-Research & Development station at Ngermeskang, Ngeremlengui State. With his knowledge and performance, the College retained his services until his passing on June 03, 2023.

Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC), the Commission Third-Party Comment

A third-party comment assists the Commission as it considers applications for candidacy, accreditation, or reaffirmation of accreditation. When an institution is undergoing a review, the Commission requires the institution's chief executive officer to notify the campus community and public of the opportunity for submission of third-party comments and the process for doing so. Any member of the college community or public may submit a third-party comment by completing the Commission's online third-party comment form, available via the institution's website or ACCJC's website. In order to ensure evaluation of applicable third-party comments by the peer review team, third-party comments should be received by the Commission staff no later than five weeks before the peer review team visit.

Palau Community College's Focus Site Visit is scheduled during the week of March 13, 2023. Should any member of the College community or the public who may wish to submit a third-party comment must complete the Commission's online third-party comment form available at <https://accjc.org/forms/third-party-comments/>. The third-party comment should be received by the Commission five weeks prior to March 13, 2023.
