2025 Summer Internship Orientation in Assembly Hall

May 23, 2025, summer interns from the various degree programs at Palau Community College met with Ms. Volette Polloi for an internship orientation. Joining Ms. Polloi in the orientation were Chief Sylvester Alonz of the Division of Youth and Career Development and Mr. Kelory Fredrick, the Citizens Job Placement Coordinator (CJPC) from the Division of Employment Services of the national government. Topics covered during the orientation were the purposes and goals of internships, basic workplace etiquette, student/employer expectations, and course requirements. Chief Alonz and Mr. Fredrick also shared career tips and motivational anecdotes for the future interns. They also discussed the various opportunities available to PCC students, such as scholarships and employment information. This summer, a total of 35 students are taking their internships, the final 4-credit course required before obtaining their degrees. The interns for this summer come from the following degree programs: Agricultural Science, Automotive Technology, Business Accounting, Business Administration, Construction Technology, Criminal Justice, Electrical Technology, General Electronics, Information Technology,
