

Annual Security & Fire Safety Report for 2024

PCC Security Services

PCC has a Security Unit comprised of one security supervisor and several security officers. These personnel provide security services to PCC properties and personnel and students, including PCC patrons during their working hours. The Security Unit is within the Physical Plant division of the College under the Administration & Finance department.

Working Relationship of PCC Security Unit with Local Law enforcement Agencies

PCC Security Unit, under the Administration & Finance Department of PCC, works closely with the Bureau of Public Safety (BPS) of the Palau Ministry of Justice (MOJ) during incidents that occur within the PCC premises, or involve PCC properties, students, and personnel. There is no written agreement or Memoranda of Understanding (MOU) between the PCC and MOJ for the investigation of alleged criminal offenses.

Statement of Policy Encouraging Accurate and Prompt Reporting of Crimes

It is the policy of Palau Community College to encourage accurate and prompt reporting of any and all crimes to campus security personnel as well as to the Bureau of Public Safety. As such, PCC has in place Incident Forms that help individuals (personnel, students, patrons) to write/describe incidents that they are involved in or to which they are a witness.
