From January 10th to 14th, a delegation from Palau Community College (PCC) traveled to Honolulu, Hawaii, to participate in the ACCJC Transparency, Storytelling, and Value Literacy Project Convening at Kapi'olani Community College. The delegation, led by PCC President Dr. Patrick U. Tellei, included Vice President and Accreditation Liaison Officer Jay Olegeriil, Computer Services Director and Assistant ALO Johvanna Yaoch, and Associate Professor and ALO Derbei Meyar.

On January 11, 2026, the PCC team had the opportunity to meet with PCC alumni and Palauan students currently studying at the University of Hawaii at Manoa. The gathering, marked by a warm and welcoming atmosphere, included Dr. Denise Eby Konan, Dean of the College of Social Sciences and a Professor of Economics at the university. Notably, Dr. Konan also serves as an economic advisor to the Republic of Palau, participating as a member of the Palau Economic Advisory Group.

The PCC delegation expressed their heartfelt gratitude to the students for the engaging discussions and for hosting them during their visit. Over a delightful lunch, participants shared meaningful conversations about the experiences of the alumni and the current students. The discussions focused on how PCC can further support and prepare future graduates for their educational endeavors at UH Manoa, paving the way for enhanced collaboration and success.

This enriching exchange underscored PCC's commitment to fostering connections with its alumni and current students, ensuring that they are well-equipped for their educational journeys beyond their time at PCC.
