Open Men's 1500 meter - 6th place

Open Men's 10 mile long distance - 3rd place

Open Men's 500 meter - 1st place

Other teams and managers from the competition commented on the PCC Canoe Club's outstanding speed, stamina, and spirit. And many were impressed when the PCC "Go for Broke" team managed to paddle to victory while singing and chanting during the 10 mile long distance race.

Since PCC only had one team in the Micro Cup race, other club members were recruited to participate on the local Meluu team (Keith Taliugyan, Jaywin Yarofalyeng, Scott Tauruepiy) and the Guam Aguan-tai Tasi team (Ismael Tewalmai, Sylvester Melaletog, Lawrence Tiwilital) and a special exhibition team, PCC Blue Turtles (Ismael Tewalmai, Sylvester Melaletog, Rol-lanson Talimeisheng, Emerald Sebastian, Terrance Epugmai, Megan Beard), was formed to paddle in the 8 mile long distance race, coming in 1st place.

Many of the other club members and PCC students came out to volunteer as time keepers, assist with canoes, and cheer for the teams (Hulda Lukas, Amando Fichmai, Helston Haleyalib, Loserino Oran, Alvin Mathews, Evelyne Tachibelmel, Albina Lemaitig, Pukalani Tudong, Zonia Kotaro, Joann Capelle, Percy, Emerald Sebastian).

The PCC Canoe Club would like to thank President Tellei for donating the paddles that allowed the team to practice for the Micro Cup, VP Jay Olegeriil and Dean Edward for organizing the food and transportation to the races, the PCC Cafeteria for the pre-packed breakfasts and lunches that gave the team energy to compete, Ephraim Ngirachitei and Hulda Lukas for providing transportation and continued support for the team, Joe Chilton for keeping the club informed and helping with registration, Armstrong Debelbot for finding a tent at the last minute so the team didn't BBQ in the sun, and faculty and staff members: Margie Buban, Tim Mitchell, Mr. Takahashi, Winfred Recheiungel, Adora Nobuo, and Alex Gachalian who came out to cheer for PCC Canoe Club. We truly appreciate all of your support!

Official PCC Canoe Club T-shirts are now on sale for $12. Please see Megan Beard in room 32 or email megan.pcc@gmail.com. All proceeds go to help the team pay for registration in future races.
